

Code of Conduct

Dungarvan Hillwalking Club is trialling the use of this code of conduct throughout 2025.

This code of conduct aims to foster a positive, safe, and enjoyable environment for all members of Dungarvan Hillwalking Club. By adhering to these guidelines, members help to maintain the club's integrity and reputation.

Respect and Inclusivity

Dungarvan Hillwalking Club is an inclusive club and expects its members to treat each other with courtesy and respect, regardless of their experience level, background, or personal characteristics. We promote a positive environment, welcoming people of all ages, genders, races, religions, sexual orientations, and abilities. Sexist, racist, ageist, harassment, bullying or other discriminatory behaviour in words or actions is not tolerated. Any behaviour that marginalises, intimidates, or excludes others is unacceptable.

Safety and Responsibility

Hillwalking, climbing and mountaineering are activities that can be dangerous and may result in personal injury or death. Participants should be aware of and accept these risks and be responsible for their own actions and involvement.

Participation in club activities is not an automatic right and can be restricted by the committee based on relevant skill, experience, health or other mitigating factors.

Members must abide by any guidelines that may be set out by the club in accordance with Mountaineering Ireland's advice and policies.

Alcohol and Substance Use

All club members, leaders and volunteers as part of this club shall follow the law when it comes to illegal drugs, alcohol and tobacco and shall display leadership and good example. Club members, leaders or volunteers shall not present themselves at club walks while under the influence of alcohol or any other drug.

Communication

Maintain open and honest communication with club members and leaders. Share any concerns, issues, or feedback constructively.

All communication of an official nature within the club and between its members must be done in a recorded medium such as emails or over a club forum. Members should aim to actively participate in club activities and meetings, share knowledge and skills with others, fostering a supportive learning environment.

Handling Conflicts

Address conflicts or grievances respectfully and through appropriate channels, following the club's complaints procedure if necessary.

Respect for the Environment and Local Communities

Members should adhere to Leave No Trace principles to minimise environmental impact. This includes leaving no litter, keeping within existing path lines where possible, leaving your dog at home and respecting wildlife.

Avoid damaging flora and fauna, and be mindful of noise levels. Respect local communities and landowners. Be courteous to locals and adhere to any rules or guidelines specific to the areas you visit.

Social Media and Public Representation

Be mindful of the content shared on social media, ensuring it reflects positively on the club and respects the privacy of members. Members should obtain permission before sharing photos or videos of members, especially in public forums.

Voluntary Club Leaders

Club leaders are recruited from suitably skilled members of the club. They must lead by example, and always put the welfare of everyone involved first and foremost. Leaders should follow the Club Guidelines for Leaders.

Prospective club leaders are encouraged to let the committee know their interest in taking on a leadership role and will try to facilitate necessary training for that role.

Dungarvan Hillwalking Club always needs new people willing and able to help out and will support and encourage anyone interested to progress in the necessary skills.

All leaders should be fairly treated and respected for the tasks they are doing, and if you are being led you must behave according to their instructions to ensure your own safety and the safety of others.

Committee Members

Committee members are democratically elected members who accept their role within the committee structure to do the best possible job based upon the role description presented under their title.

Committee members must be willing to operate in an impartial and transparent manner, always putting the best interest of the club first.

Committee members must be adequately accessible to members of the club and must attend the relevant club activities to be able to perform their duties properly.

Note:

Breaches of this code of conduct may result in disciplinary action, including warnings, suspension, or termination of club membership. Members are encouraged to report any violations of the code of conduct to the club committee.
